Freeman-Burkette.

Elliott, Sept. 30.—One of the most beautiful weddings ever solemnized in the Baptist church of Elliott was that on last Wednesday evening when Miss Geneva Freeman, daughter of E. C. Freeman, of this place became the bride of J. J. Burkette.

The altar was banked with ferns while white roses bloomed amid the trailing smilax. Long before the appointed time the church was filled with admiring friends, and just before the bridal party entered Miss Mary Player charmingly rendered "Love's Old Sweet Song" as a vocal solo with a fine accompaniment by Mrs. M. E. Carter who also played the wedding march.

At 7:45 o'clock Mrs. Carter began Mendelssohn's wedding march and the bridal party entered. First came the little ribbon bearers, Harris Carter and Frances Hill, on the left, Hubert Hill and Virgie Mooneyhan on the right, all being dressed in white. Next came the ushers, followed by the maid of honor, Miss Lilah Wren, of Due West, who wore a lovely dress of point d'esprit net over white silk bearing a shower bouquet of white chrysanthemums and ferns, while little Miss Margaret Carter made a beautiful ring bearer. The bride entered with her father and her blonde beauty never showed to greater advantage than in her costume of midnight blue and velvet picture hat. She carried a shower bouquet of white carnations, chrysanthemums and ferns. She was met at the altar by the bridegroom who entered with his best man, R. L. Andrews, of Manning. The ceremony was performed by the Rev. Mr. Benson, their pastor.

Immediately after the ceremony they left for Augusta and other points in Georgia.

Mrs. Burkette is a popular young woman of charming personality, numbering her friends by the score. Mr. Burkette who is engaged in the mercantile business here is one of Elliott's most promising young men and his many friends over the State will congratulate him upon his good fortune. The couple will make their home in Elliott.

Death of Miss Lucy Mood.

Miss Lucy Mood, daughter of the late W. R. Mood of Summerton, died at the Toumey Hospital last night, after a short illness. The body was taken to Summerton this afternoon, where the funeral services and interment were conducted at 3:30 o'clock. Miss Mood was taken ill at Bishopville on last Thursday and was brought to the local hospital for treatment.

The deceased was a most charming young lady and died in the early flush of womanhood, being just 22 years of age. Her death came as a great shock and sorrow to her many friends in Summerton, Bishopville and elsewhere. She is survived by her mother, Mrs. Hattie Scarborough Mood of Summerton, two brothers, Messrs. Julius, who is on the border; Rogers, who is a cadet at the Citadel; and one sister, Miss Maria Mood, who is in training as a nurse at Charleston Hospital. She was a niece of Miss Emma Mood of Sumter and of Mr. W. Rogers Scarborough of Bishopville. Quite a number of people from Sumter attended the funeral services at Summerton this afternoon.

BRADLEY-HARLEE WEDDING.

Rembert, Sept. 28.—A wedding of much interest to this section of the State was solemnized here on Wednesday night when Miss Maye Elouise Bradley, daughter of Mrs. T. M. Bradley, became the bride of Walter C. Harlee, Jr., of Florence. The wedding was at St. John's Methodist church at 8 o'clock and was witnessed by a large number of relatives and friends of the contracting parties. The marriage ceremony was performed by Rev. Dr. Bayes.

The church was tastefully and beautifully decorated in green and pink with white background. Prior to the ceremony Mrs. I. F. Barnett of Bishopville, sang very softly and sweetly "A Perfect Day" and "Somewhere a Voice is Calling," piano accompaniment being rendered by Miss Elma Evans of Bishopville. Immediately after the songs the bridal party began marching in to the strains of Lohengrin's bridal chorus.

The attendants were Miss Lucia Smith, maid of honor, who wore a lovely dress of Nile green crepe de chine, with white trimmings; Misses Willene Britton, Sarah White, Elizabeth Reames, and Mary Harloe, were bridesmaids and were robed in pink crepe de chine. Mrs. Willie Shular, sister of the bride, was dame of honor. She was lovely in her gray dress with pink accessories. Little Misses Mary Bradley and Wilson were the ribbon carriers, and Barr Attaway, the ring bearer. Messrs. Olin White, Adam Reames, Edward Bradley, and Armstrong Harlee acted as groomsmen, and Mr. Joe Dargan of Darlington, was best man.

Ushers were Messrs. James Jenkins and Lenard Smith.

The bride, who is unusually attractive, was lovely in a shimmering satin charmeuse with bridal veil caught up from the face with a wreath of orange blossoms. She entered the church on the arm of her maid of honor and was met at the altar by the groom. The bride carried a lovely bouquet of white bride's roses and her attendants carried white and pink roses and asters. Immediately after the ceremony the bridal party left for the home of the bride, where an informal reception was given. Pink and white decorations were used in the home, that being the color scheme. A delightful sweet course was served, and much merriment was enjoyed in cutting the bride's cake.

Misses Kate Jenkins and Elma Evans presided over the punch bowl, which was in a lovely bower of green and roses. The groom is a successful young business man and has many friends in the State.

Immediately after the reception the bride and groom left in an automobile for Sumter where they took the train for places of interest.

The bride's traveling suit was green velvet with fur trimmings and accessories to match.

After their return, the happy couple will make their home at Rembert, where the groom will continue his business. The young couple have many friends that wish them all happiness.

Among the out-of-town guests were Mr. and Mrs. Robert Harlee, Mr. and Mrs. H. T. Harlee, Miss Mary Harlee and Armstrong Harlee, of Florence; Mrs. McQueen Quattlebaum of Conway; Miss Willene Britton, Camden; Miss Sarah White, Branchville; Joe Dargan and George Skirson, Darlington; Mrs. C. T. Evans, Mrs. I. F. Barnett, Misses Elma and Abbie Evans of Bishopville; Buck Smith and Mr. McDowell of Camden; Mr. George Hurst of Sumter.

FATIMA

A Sensible Cigarette

Such men seek smoke-comfort

WHEN YOU stop to realize the number of sound, conservative men who have changed over to Fatimas in the last six months, it surely indicates that Fatimas must offer something no other cigarette can offer.

Perhaps you haven't thought of it this way:

Do you know any other cigarette that is always cool and comfortable? Do you know any other cigarette beside Fatimas that leaves a man feeling fine and "fit" even after a long-smoking day?

It is these qualities that make Fatimas truly sensible.

THIEF AGAIN AT WORK.

The thief or thieves, who have been causing housekeepers so much worry in the city of late, were again abroad Saturday evening. Before Mr. S. R. Smoak returned home from work and while his wife was at church attending the W. C. T. U. convention a thief entered their house by cutting away a part of the wire screen to the back door so as to slip his hand through and turn the latch. In the house the thief made a sweep of all that pleased him. He did not take any valuables, but stole a fresh pat of butter and a pan of milk which he found in the refrigerator, taking the butter dish and milk pan with him. He also took an alarm clock, a pair of children's shoes and a number of other articles which evidently pleased his fancy, or of which he would have need.

Miss H. V. Rotholz, of the H. W. Gossard Corset Company, is in the city for several days, making her headquarters at the Sumter Corset Shop.

KILLING SATURDAY NIGHT.

James McBride was shot and almost instantly killed by Ruby Ludd, the shooting occurring on Saturday night on Mrs. Hannah Ingram's place near Privateer. Ludd immediately after the shooting made herself scarce and has not yet been located by the officers, who have been looking for him ever since.

The shooting, according to the testimony adduced at the coroner's inquest on Sunday, followed some words between the two men about the punishment by McBride of one of his own children. It seems that McBride slapped the child and Ludd expostulated with him. McBride said he would correct his own child in any manner which pleased him, whereupon Ludd drew his pistol and fired a shot into his (McBride's) brain.

Mr. R. L. Kennedy, better known to his hundreds of friends and acquaintances as Pat, who has been conducting a repair shop in Sumter for more than 15 years, has decided to leave the city and locate in North Carolina.

Marriage.

Mr. J. B. Farah of Goldsboro, N. C., and Miss Naomi Joseph of Summerton were married on Friday at St. Anne's Rectory, Father N. A. Murphy officiating. The marriage was a quiet affair with only a few friends present, the couple leaving immediately afterwards for their home in North Carolina. Mrs. Farah is a well known and popular young lady of Summerton and will be much missed from that town.

Mrs. R. S. Hood has returned to the city, after a stay at Saluda, N. C.
